

DU SOL – Admissions Guide

About DU SOL

Delhi University School of Open Learning (SOL) offers undergraduate programmes under the Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode. It is affiliated to the University of Delhi and its degrees are equivalent to regular DU degrees.

Programmes Offered

- B.A. Programme (3 years)
- B.A. (Hons) English
- B.A. (Hons) Political Science
- B.A. (Hons) Hindi
- B.Com. Programme (3 years)
- B.Com. (Hons) (3 years)
- M.A. Hindi / Political Science (for eligible graduates)

Eligibility

- UG Programmes: Passed Class 12 from a recognised board. Minimum 40% aggregate (varies by course).
- PG Programmes: Graduate in relevant subject from a recognised university.
- No upper age limit for admission.
- Admission is merit-based; no entrance exam for most programmes.

Admission Process

1. Register on the official DU SOL portal: sol.du.ac.in
2. Fill the online application form and upload documents.
3. Pay the application fee online.
4. Merit list is published; selected candidates complete fee payment.
5. Collect study material from the assigned Study Centre.

Documents Required

- Class 10 & 12 mark sheets and certificates
- Transfer Certificate / Migration Certificate
- Category certificate (SC/ST/OBC/EWS) if applicable
- Passport-size photographs
- Valid ID proof (Aadhaar, etc.)

Important Dates (Typical Session)

- Registration opens: June–July
- Last date to apply: August (extended often till September)
- Classes/Study material availability: October onwards

Always check sol.du.ac.in for exact dates each year.

Contact & Portal

Website: sol.du.ac.in | Helpline: 011-27666528 / 27667610

Email: solinfo@sol.du.ac.in