

DU SOL – Fee Structure

Overview

DU SOL fees are significantly lower than regular Delhi University colleges. Fees are paid annually at the time of admission/re-registration.

Approximate Annual Fees (UG)

- B.A. Programme: Rs. 1,500 – 2,500 per year
- B.A. (Hons) courses: Rs. 2,000 – 3,000 per year
- B.Com. Programme: Rs. 2,000 – 3,000 per year
- B.Com. (Hons): Rs. 2,500 – 3,500 per year

Note: Exact fees are revised each session. Verify on sol.du.ac.in before payment.

Approximate Annual Fees (PG)

- M.A. Hindi / Political Science: Rs. 3,000 – 5,000 per year

Fee Components

- Tuition fee
- Registration / re-registration fee
- Examination fee (paid separately at exam form stage)
- Study material fee (included in most programmes)
- University Development Fund

Payment Methods

All payments are made online through the SOL portal (sol.du.ac.in) via:

- Debit / Credit Card
- Net Banking
- UPI

No cash payments at counters. Keep the payment receipt/acknowledgement.

Re-registration Fees

Students must pay re-registration fee every year to continue to the next year of their programme. Failure to re-register on time may attract a late fee or cancellation of enrolment.

Fee Concessions

- SC/ST students: Eligible for fee waiver as per UGC/DU norms.
- PWD students: Fee concession applicable.
- EWS category: Concessional fee as per DU policy.

Submit relevant certificates at the time of admission to avail concession.

Refund Policy

Refunds are available if cancellation is done within the DU-prescribed window. Partial deduction applies based on timing. After a certain period, no refund is issued.
