

DU SOL – General FAQs

About the Degree

Q: Is a DU SOL degree valid and recognised?

A: Yes. DU SOL degrees are issued by the University of Delhi and are recognised by UGC, AICTE, and all central/state government bodies. They are equivalent to regular DU degrees.

Q: Is the degree the same as a regular DU degree?

A: The degree mentions 'School of Open Learning' and the mode is ODL, but it carries the DU name and is valid for all jobs, higher studies, and competitive exams.

Attendance & Classes

Q: Is attendance mandatory?

A: No compulsory daily attendance. However, students should attend counselling sessions at their Study Centre for guidance.

Q: Are there regular classes?

A: SOL conducts optional counselling/guidance sessions at Study Centres. Students primarily study through self-learning material.

Admission Related

Q: Can I apply if I passed Class 12 in private/correspondence mode?

A: Yes, as long as the board is recognised.

Q: Is there any entrance exam?

A: No, admission is merit-based (Class 12 marks) for most programmes.

Q: Can I take admission after a gap year?

A: Yes. There is no bar on age or gap years for SOL admission.

Exams & Results

Q: Where do I appear for exams?

A: Exam centres are allotted by DU. The admit card specifies the centre.

Q: What if I fail in one paper?

A: You can appear as an ex-student in the next exam cycle for that paper. ATKT rules apply.

Q: Can I improve my marks?

A: You can apply for revaluation/re-checking. Improvement exams (if any) are notified separately by DU.

Fees & Payments

Q: Can I pay fees in cash at the SOL office?

A: No. All payments are online through the SOL portal.

Q: What if I miss the re-registration deadline?

A: A late fee is charged. Enrolment may be cancelled if the deadline is significantly missed. Contact SOL helpline immediately.

Study Material & Portal

Q: Where do I get study material?

A: Printed material is available at your assigned Study Centre. Digital material is on the SOL e-learning portal.

Q: I forgot my enrolment number / password. What to do?

A: Use the 'Forgot Password' option on sol.du.ac.in or contact your Study Centre.

Contact & Support

DU SOL Helpline: 011-27666528 / 011-27667610

Email: solinfo@sol.du.ac.in

Portal: sol.du.ac.in

Address: School of Open Learning, 5 Cavalry Lane, Delhi University, Delhi – 110007